Dear Sir,

V.3 C.K. Will you kindly refer to your letter No.2798/48 dated the Ist July forwarding the case of ex-Fitter, No.132975, M.D'Souza who is undergoing treatment for Leprosy as an out-patient at the St.Joseph's Leprosy Hospital, Kankanady, Mangalore for renewal of his grant of Rs.30/- p.m. towards nourishing diet?

C/

This ex-serviceman was sanctioned a grant of Rs.30/- p.m. while his disability pension was under consideration. Now, as he is stated to have been granted a disability pension of Rs.30/- p.m. for life, would you kindly let-us know, if the continuation of the grant of the same amount (Rs.30/- p.m.) is still necessary.

The individual is taking regular treatment as an ~~out~~- outdoor patient at the leper asylum, as can be seen from a copy of the Medical Officer i/c of the said asylum already enclosed VIDE my above reference.

The individual is making the best utilisation of the grant for his treatment and special dieting as far as I know.

Since the ~~@@@@@@~~ District Medical Officer, South Kanara, recommends him for further treatment of six months more and the pension of Rs. 30/- which he is drawing is hardly sufficient to meet his other expenses, the continuation of the relief grant may kindly be made.
